

1

Question: What is Cross-Site Request Forgery (CSRF) also known as?

- A) XSS
- B) SQL Injection
- C) Sea Surf or Session Riding
- D) Phishing

Correct Answer: C

2

Question: Which of the following is NOT a potential consequence of a successful CSRF attack?

- A) Unauthorized fund transfers
- B) Changed passwords
- C) Data theft (stolen session cookies)
- D) Denial of Service (DoS)

Correct Answer: D

3

Question: How does CSRF exploit user authentication?

- A) By bypassing the login process
- B) By cracking the user's password
- C) By using the user's active session
- D) By installing malware on the user's computer

Correct Answer: C

4

Question: Which of these is a primary method for preventing CSRF attacks?

- A) Using strong passwords
- B) Installing a firewall

C) Implementing anti-CSRF tokens

D) Regularly updating software

Correct Answer: C

5

Question: What is the function of the SameSite cookie attribute?

A) To encrypt cookies

B) To restrict cookie usage to first-party contexts

C) To store user credentials securely

D) To prevent XSS attacks

Correct Answer: B